

About the Constructive Grammar Series

★ Who should use this grammar series?

- (i) Junior form students with average English standard.
- (ii) Senior form students with a weak foundation.
- (iii) Adult learners who want to brush up their grammar.

★ Why should learners buy this grammar series?

- (i) The grammar notes are concise and easy to read. Besides, there are sufficient examples for understanding grammatical concepts.
- (ii) The exercises in the practice booklets are relevant and have a variety of question types; they can help students consolidate what they have learnt from the grammar notes.

★ How to use the practice booklets?

- (i) Before doing an exercise, read the corresponding section in Constructive Grammar Notes and memorize the important rules and facts. Revising the earlier sections of that topic would help too.
- (ii) Do the exercise and check the answers carefully.
- (iii) Go over the grammar notes once more for further consolidation.

★ Why having the grammar notes in a separate booklet?

- (i) It allows students to revise the grammar they learnt in previous years.
- (ii) It gives students a clear picture of the essential grammar topics they need to master.
